TESTERS NEEDED IN VERMONT.

A Special Short Course to Be Given to Prepare Men for Positions.

The dairy interests of Vermont are beginning to feel a shortage of competent Babcock test operators which not only handicaps the commercial plants but also hampers production. Competent, well trained testers are especially needed in three branches of the dairy work.

It has been necessary to disband some associations because a tester could not be obtained and many new associations could be formed if well trained men were available to do the testing and record work. Men who are able to give advice regarding feeding problems and herd management are in demand. Such testers receive $50 to $70 a month with board and lodging.

Advanced Registry Supervisors.

There are calls for testers to supervise advanced registry tests on breeders of purebred dairy cattle. These supervisors are paid $2.50 a day and all expenses. Creamery and Milk Plant Testers. Some of our creameries and milk plants are in need of competent cream and milk testers and properly trained men are usually paid from $60 to $80 per month.

A Special Short Course.

In view of the situation the dairy department of the University of Vermont and state agricultural college is offering a special 10-day course from Jan. 17 to 25, inclusive. During this time intensive practical training will be given to prepare men for positions as cow testers, advanced registry supervisors, and testers in commercial plants. Anyone who needs a state license to test may secure the necessary training in this course. Not all students will receive the same work but each of these three groups will be given the necessary special instruction. Instruction will be given by the regular instructors of the college of agriculture and the forces of the Vermont commissioner of agriculture.

This course will be open to the following classes of men:

First, men who now are acting or have acted as testers for cow testing associations. These men will be given special instruction in record work, feeding and herd management.

Second, former short course students at the University of Vermont and state agricultural college.

Third, former students of the state agricultural schools.

Fourth, men who have worked in commercial dairy plants.

Fifth, others over 20 years of age whose education or training has been such as to fit them for one of these lines of work. Young men are not much in demand unless they have had training or experience which makes them especially fitted for one of these lines of work.

All who wish to take the course should make application as soon as possible, stating their age, experience, training and giving at least two references. The expense of taking the course will be small. Aside from traveling the only expenses will be a laboratory fee of $2 to cover materials used, books $2 or $3, and $0 to $12 for board and room. All applications or requests for further information should be addressed to Prof.

THE DEPENDENT CHILD.

Miss Sibyl Peace to Investigate the Problem in Vermont.

The emergency children's committee, recently formed to study the problem of the dependent child in Vermont, met in Vergennes Jan. 6 and voted to appoint as investigator, Miss Sibyl Peace of Burlington. It will be Miss Peace's work to investigate all aspects of the problem of the dependent child in this state. For this work her extensive experience in social work admirably fits her. In addition to a course in the Boston school of social work, she has had considerable field work in Boston with the Associated Charities, the Home for Little Wanderers, the Children's Aid society and the Red Cross. This field work was done under the direction of some of America's most expert social workers. Miss Peace, in connection with her work, will co-operate closely with the state boards of charities and of health, the secretary of each board having agreed to assist her in all ways possible.

While the civilian relief department of the Red Cross meets the expense of the investigation, supervision of the work is entirely in the hands of the emergency children's aid committee. Of this committee, C. W. Wilson of Vergennes is chairman and A. R. Gifford of Burlington, secretary-treasurer. An important meeting of this committee will be held in Montpelier Jan. 16 at 3 p. m. in connection with the fourth annual Vermont conference of social work.

H. Wood of Dartmouth, Mrs. Nellie T. Hendrick, the dean of the school, of Nashua, N. H., and W. B. Wood chairman, W. B. Glynn, Mr. Lucius Thayer, Miss Elizabeth Sawyer and Mrs. Bowker.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

BUTTER SCORING.

Results of 12th Monthly Educational Contest.

The 12th and last educational butter scoring of the University of Vermont college of agriculture, extension service and Vermont state department of agriculture, co-operating, for 1918 was held at Burlington Dec. 16. Twenty-nine samples were entered and most of them were very good for this time of the year. The high score, 94½, was received by E. C. Hillis of North Montpelier. As usual the creameries which pasteurize or use starter or both averaged well above those which do not practice this. The difference this month was more than one point. With the grade of cream received all the butter made at the creamery. Arrangements have been made to continue the scorings another year. An announcement of the plans for next year will be issued soon. The next scoring will be held Feb. 1.

A few samples gave evidence of being made from very poor cream. Producers should wake up to the fact that they must deliver good cream if good butter is to be made and that one or two lots of bad cream may reduce the selling price of all the butter made at the creamery. Arrangements have been made to continue the scorings another year. An announcement of the plans for next year will be issued soon. The next scoring will be held Feb. 1.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me. Eugene M. Fullerton, 4672 McCellus avenue, Manassas, Va. J. Better cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured. An Enemy of Womanhood.

The complexion, digestion and almost the complete personality of woman are dependent upon health. Woman's ills are her great enemy, as they cause her complexion, dark circles under the eyes, headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, dragging-down pains and the blues, and often totally unfit her for a companion. The great American remedy for such conditions is Lydia E.
